Such circumstances include, without limitation, acts of God, flood, fire, earthquake, explosion, governmental actions, war, invasion or hostilities (whether war is declared or not), terrorist threats or acts, zombie apocalypse, riot, or other civil unrest, national emergency, revolution and insurrection, epidemic, lock-outs, strikes or other labor disputes (whether or not relating to either party's workforce), or restraints or delays affecting carriers or inability or delay in obtaining supplies of adequate or suitable materials, telecommunication breakdown or power outage, provided that, if the event in question continues for a continuous period in excess of 30 days, Client shall be entitled to give notice in writing to terminate this Agreement.

Indemnification

Client agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Agency harmless from and against all third party claims, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses arising out of or related to the use of the Service by the Client, or attributable to Client's breach of this Agreement, provided that Agency gives Client prompt written notice of any such claim.

Disclaimer

Agency shall have no liability under or in any way related to this agreement for any loss, loss of profit or revenue or for any consequential, indirect, incidental, special or exemplary damages, even if Agency is aware of the possibility of such loss or damages. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply.

06. The Law

A. Review and Expiration

This Agreement is valid for one calendar year beginning on the Effective Date. It will automatically renew for an additional one calendar year term, unless notice of termination or nonrenewal is given by either party, within 30 days of the renewal date.

B. Cancellation

Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason upon giving 30 days' prior written notice to the other. Upon termination of this Agreement by Client without Agency's fault or consent, Client shall pay Agency, in addition to all of the fees earned by Agency pursuant to the terms hereof, an early termination fee equal to 50% of the total remaining fees payable to Agency hereunder (as specified in the SOW), plus any and all expenses and third party costs reasonably incurred by Agency through the effective date of cancellation. At Agency's election, Client's delay of work under this Agreement for a cumulative period of more than 30 days without Agency's fault or consent shall be considered a termination of this Agreement by Client within the meaning of the immediately preceding sentence. If Client desires to terminate this Agreement due to Agency's fault, Client shall give Agency written notice detailing the nature of Agency's fault and possible remedies, whereupon Agency shall have a reasonable period of time (but in no event less than 30 days) to cure such fault. Termination by Client without providing the foregoing notice and cure period shall be considered "termination without Agency's fault" as described above.

The language of this Agreement shall not be interpreted in favor of or against any party as the drafter of this Agreement.

C. Dispute Resolution

All claims and disputes between the Parties relating in any way to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby which cannot be resolved through their good faith discussions (a "Dispute") shall be submitted to mandatory non-binding mediation by either Party to an impartial mediator appointed through the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services ("JAMS") in Los Angeles, California, for a good faith effort at resolution. The mediator shall review the Dispute within thirty (30) days of submission or at such other time provided the Parties so agree. Any mediation fee shall be paid equally among the Parties. Any Dispute which is not resolved through such mandatory mediation shall be settled by final and binding arbitration before a single neutral arbitrator of JAMS who shall be a retired judge in accordance with the then current JAMS Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures in Los Angeles, California. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court in California. Each Party agrees that the Dispute as mediated and/or arbitrated and the final resolution of such Dispute shall be considered to be confidential information. The prevailing Party in any such arbitration shall be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as determined by the arbitrator.
